There is sorrow in Beechenbrook Cottage; - the day Has been bright with the earliest glory of May; The blue of the sky is as tender a blue, As ever the sunshine came shimmering through: The songs of the birds and the hum of the bees, As they merrily dart in and out of the trees, The blooms of the orchard, as sifting its snows, It mingles its odors with hawthorn and rose; - The voice of the brook, as it lapses unseen, - The laughter of children at play on the green, - Insist on a picture so cheerful - so fair, Who ever would dream that a grief could be there! The last yellow sunbeam slides down from the wall, The purple of evening is ready to fall, About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
