Publishamerica, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.For a seventeen year old boy, a holiday with your parents is not ideal, but Chris has no choice but to go with his parents to the south of France. He would rather be going with his friends to Turkey. Along the way, his parents marriage troubles appear. Once they arrived at the campsite, everything still seems too bad even though he met the French girl of his dreams. On leaving the Netherlands, Chris was prepared for the worst, but even he could not have predicted it how bad it could be. Daphne Damiaanns (21) studied journalism in Utrecht and from her first writing lessons in kindergarten she not only found enjoyment but loved to share her wonderful stories with others. This is her first long story. It is inspired by her experiences, with just a touch of imagination. This is a must for anyone who has ever experienced a disappointing holiday.
