

Tales From the Other Side

By Christopher Ejsmond

Chipmunkpublishing, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Christopher Ejsmond has been diagnosed with schizophrenia, obsessive-compulsive disorder and Asperger s Syndrome. He lives with the legacy of child sexual abuse, severe mental illness, alcoholism, poor physical health and caring for a severely disabled parent. Although he struggled in mainstream education, he later found his direction in life and won a scholarship to Magdalene College Cambridge where he graduated in History and Philosophy of Science. He also studied Slavonic languages and cultures at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies at the University of London. He is a qualified Social Worker. This, his second published collection of poetry, reflects the ideas, world events and personal experiences which have shaped his thinking and style of expression. He has previously published a collection of poems, Reflections on Life (2008), with Chipmunkpublishing. The book is a collection of ninety poems focussing on the author s experience of mental distress and his journey of self-awareness and recovery. The poems carry a message of hope and explore some of the subconscious and symbolic undercurrents which have shaped those experiences and have...
