In the time being we must not lose sight of the vital points which will insure the training of workmen upon a basis to which no fair objection can be made. To this end the chief of the division of trade schools will for the present be glad to confer with interested parties and consider individual cases. All correspondence will be welcomed by Mr. Dean. It is the very earnest desire of the Education Department to meet a serious and widespread public need, and to do it safely and efficiently. It must be done upon a plan which will be reasonably free from abuse, and which will establish mutually helpful relations between the educational and industrial activities of the State. And we may as well all remember that we are breaking out new roads which seem imperative to the public need, and that we must have patience while we find the true and safe paths. Very sincerely yours, A. S. Draper, Commissioner of Education. Albany, N. Y., September 10, 1908. Personal Carleton A. Read, formerly professor of mechanical engineering at the New Hampshire College, has now become professor of steam engineering at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute. Charles H. Turner, who was for some time employed by the American Car and Foundry Company as a designer, has recently accepted a similar position with the Standard Steel Car Company, Butler, Penn. C. L. deMuralt has been re-appointed professor of electrical engineering at the University...
